Sandra Jean McConnell Bride of Gary W. Dean

McCONNELL-DEAN

Miss Sandra Jean McConnell became the bride of Gary Wayne Dean on Aug. 30 at the Farview Heights RLDS Church. The Rev. Wally Cochran performed the afternoon double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McConnell, 2310 McBride, Sugar Creek, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dean, Mexico, Mo.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an Empire gown of imported organza pearl embroidered with Alencon lace on the bodice and cap and cuff of the Camelot sleeves. A band of scalloped lace formed a redingote effect on the bouffant skirt and encircled the cathedral-length train. Her elbow-length veil was of silk illusion and fell from a pearl embroidered Alencon lace Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses and white stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Tom Woods, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Jim Shuler, Miss Peggy Shrout, Miss Janet Barnett, Miss Jan Hendrix, and Miss Joy Dean, sister of the bridegroom.

They wore Empire floor-length gowns with a bodice of white dotted Swiss and skirts of saphire blue miramist. The gowns featured long full sleeves and pearl buttons at the cuffs. They wore white picture brim hats accented with blue band and bow and carried bouquets of yellow and white pompons.

Sheryl Dean, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl, and Scott Carver was ring bearer.

Bruce Webber, and groomsmen were Lany McConnell, brother of the bride, Alan Buie, Joe Tom Forster, Sonny Smith, and Barry Garrett. Ushers were Mr. Smith and Gary Keith.

MRS. GARY WAYNE DEAN
(Miss Sandra Jean McConnell)

Mrs. Keith Allen was organist and accompanied Tom Woods who sang.

A reception was held at the church. Mrs. Jay Van Velzen, Mrs. Steve Wharton, and Miss Jo Ellen Hendrix served. Miss Dianne McConnell and Miss Pat Teebow attended the guest book.

After a wedding trip to the Lake of the Ozarks, they will make their home in Warrensburg.

No, he doesn't live here; he just comes to the parties.

The women of third floor Walker adopted the name, Kimball Manor, in memory of Violet (Mrs. Heber C.) Kimball, a leader among the women who faithfully supported the builders of the Kirtland Temple.

The year's activities began as the house initiated a tradition by being the first to display sweatshirts. Parties and functions included an oriental with - function, line-party, gym nights, serenade in behalf of homecoming queen candidate, a Christmas room decorating contest, "come-as-you-are" breakfast, mock banquet, and finally the lovely "Sweet Spring" banquet. Each activity holds rich memories for its participants.

An example of "peaceful co-existence."

Council of House Presidents Elects Officers; Begins Work

The Council of House Presidents elected officers, September 5, to serve for the academic year, 1962-63. Dan Shank was elected to the position of President of the Council with Lance Hutton serving as Vice-President and Sharon Pray as Secretary. The Council consists of Shirley Bigham, Carolyn Carter, Sue Fisher, Judy Manning, Margo Montgomery, Rita Norvell, Sharon Pray, Jim Elvin, Jim Gargano, Lance Hutton, Dan Shank, Jim Warnock, and Jim Zimmer. Head Residents, the Student Body President, and Director of Housing comprise the Advisory Body for the Council. The Council will be meeting third hours Tuesdays and it is requested that items that students wish to be presented to the Council be given to the Council President in writing by hours of the night preceding the meeting.

At present a committee on the Council is investigating the possibilities of erecting uniform House signs in front of their respective residence halls. More immediate than this, however, is the need for selecting House names. It is hoped that this will be done as soon as possible.

Due to the fact that freshmen typically find it difficult to orient themselves to college study, the Council has effected freshmen study hours. Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday nights between the hours of 7:00-9:00 p. m., freshmen are expected to be in their rooms, the library or residence hall study rooms. This is in effect until Homecoming.

The Department of Housing has been asked to investigate the possibilities of the college providing a sidewalk toward Ullery Hall on the School's property, to which Howard Ullery will join a sidewalk on his property. Also, the Council approved the use of large rugs in Ullery Hall since its cement floors are hard to keep clean and colder and more damp. Residents are expected, however, to keep them clean as a vacuum is provided in the Hall.

Eight Gracelanders Selected To Be 1962-63 Cheerleaders

Saturday night at the Westmar game, the cheerleaders for the 1962-63 school year were chosen. Representatives from COSA, the senate, a past cheerleader, and a member from the Physical Education Department picked nine from the finalists. They are: Sharon Bussard, senior from Springfield, Missouri; Cheryl Cash, freshman from Independence, Mo.; Cindy DeSalvo, freshman from Pueblo, Colorado; Barbara Farnsworth, junior from Aurora, Illinois; Anita Gerber, sophomore from Independence, Missouri; Janet Henderson, freshman from Washington, D. C.; and Jerry Garfield, sophomore from Lee's Summit, Missouri.

Linda Darter, freshman from Gary, Indiana; and Marilyn Thomas, sophomore from Marshalltown, Iowa, will serve as alternates for the year.

Sharon is setting a new record at Graceland this year, as this is her third year on the cheerleading squad. All of the other cheerleaders with the exception of Jerry have been cheerleaders in their high schools.

The group was ranked on several qualities of good cheerleading—enthusiasm, pep, and precision of motion. Those persons who topped the list in ranking became members of the cheerleading squad.

Spotlighting: Susanne Gravendijk

by Mila N. Ruiz

Hi readers! How's your geography? Do you know where Aruba is? Well, if you don't know where it is you will be just as happy reading this article as I was interested when I interviewed Susanne Gravendijk.

Susanne is an only child (but not spoiled!) and her father works at Lago Oil and Transport Company Ltd. in Aruba of the Netherlands West Indies. Her father is Dutch and her mother is an American which gives her a dual citizenship. Susanne has three more years to go to be 21 when she must choose her preferred citizenship. Because of her father's job, she was able to travel to 16 countries excluding Aruba. She has been to Venezuela, Colombia, Costa Rica, Honduras, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Holland, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, France, Italy, Spain, Monaco, Cuba and the United States. Here in the U.S. she has gone to 26 states. Susanne is surely a cosmopolitan girl.

While here in Graceland, she is enrolled in the Pre-med curriculum. She plans to stay on the "hill" from 2-4 years. She hopes to be a pediatrician someday and be able to practice in Asia or Africa. (Another influence of George's goodwill ambassadorship!)

This December means two things to Susanne besides being Christmas. For one thing she will be able to see her Dad who will spend Christmas with her and the second thing is, the excitement of seeing snow for the first time. (You'll see snow earlier than you think Susanne!)

Here's a short description of Susanne's homeland. Aruba is 19 miles long and 5 miles wide and only 60 miles off the coast of Venezuela and approximately 900 miles from Cuba. It is one of the six islands of the Netherlands West Indies. The other five islands are Bonair, Curacao, St. Eustacius, Seba, and St. Martin. These Dutch isles are protected by the Queen of Holland. Its official language is Dutch but the population of 52,000 speaks Papiamento—a mixture of Spanish, Portuguese, French and Dutch. Susanne says that there are only 2 newspapers in Aruba—one written in Dutch, the other in Papiamento. A familiar slogan among tourist centers in Aruba is, "A little Dutch isle, Carribean style."

Next time you'll go tripping don't forget Aruba. I'll see you there!

Gadets Chosen

"Graceland forever, dear Alma Mater. . . ." These words have been ringing through the halls of most all of the residence halls ever since school got under way. The main reason being Gadet tryouts. This past week the 1962-63 Graceland Gadets were chosen.

The regulars include: Gerri Dugger, Independence; Carol Bowlby, Boston, Mass.; Donna Baker, Michigan; Rita Norvall, Missouri; Rudena Kramer, Missouri; Jan Sprague, Iowa; Jan Albrecht, Missouri; Jan Davis, Iowa; Sally Ashby, Kansas; Barbara Currie, Iowa; Pat Castings, Iowa; Bunny Berryman, Texas; Linda Caswell, Iowa; Judi Dawson, Iowa. The alternates for the year will be: Barbara Draves, Missouri; Karen Partlowe, Pennsylvania; Judy Baker, Ohio; and Ann Brockway.

Jan Sprague will serve as captain for the year. Carol Bowlby will be her assistant.

Campus Plans for Alums

In just six short days the quiet, peaceful grounds of Graceland's campus will be invaded by a swarming throng of Alums, parents, future Gracelanders and various other beings. But Graceland is not to be taken by surprise. Preparations are now being made for a counter-attack by means of a bombardment of athletic events, meetings, and various other activities which insure a victory of fun and enjoyment for all.

Homecoming Queen Selection To Be By Popular Vote

This year's Homecoming Queen will be selected by popular vote of the student body from the candidates presented by all women's houses on campus. The candidates thus chosen and the houses they represent are: Miss Sally Carritt, 3rd floor Walker; Mrs. Carol Chesworth, Married Students; Miss Sue Fisher, lower level and 1st floor Walker; Miss Ramona Jensen, Tess Morgan; Miss Valora (Lorrie) Long, Derry, East, and Weldon's; Miss Kapua Roberts, Patroness East and West; Miss Cynthia Sanford, 2nd floor Walker; and Miss Brenda Shaw, Patroness North. These women were chosen by their respective houses as meeting the requirement set by the queen contest committee, a student faculty group, that "the candidate will be representative of the spirit of Graceland and college womanhood."

Miss Sally Carritt is a sophomore in the liberal arts cirriculum. From Little Sioux, Iowa, she is also a member of the Crescent Club.

Mrs. Carol Chesworth from Lamoni is a senior in elementary education. She is the wife of Donald Chesworth, Jr.

Miss Sue Fisher is another elementary education student and a junior from Lexington, Mass. She is president of her house.

Miss Ramona Jensen is a physical education major. A senior, she hails from Conception Junction, Missouri.

Miss Valora Long, from Hulett, Wyoming, is a sophomore student in liberal arts. She is a member of the Crescent Club.

Miss Kapua Roberts is a sophomore from Honolulu, Hawaii, and is in the liberal arts cirriculum. She is associate chaplain of her house.

Miss Cynthia Sanford is a sophomore student in home economics from Willoughby, Ohio. Cindy is a Crescent in her house.

Miss Brenda Shaw is the only freshman represented in the queen candidates. She is in liberal arts and is from Notts, Sutton-in-Ashfield, England.

Campaigning for your votes commences Friday at 5:00 p. m. as posters and leaflefts are displayed and cut out badges worn on shirts and sweaters announce the candidate of your choice. At this time portraits of the candidates will have been placed in the showcases in the Memorial Student Center. These are the only photographs to be used of candidates throughout their campaign.

The first scheduled public view of the candidates is set for Thursday, October 4, as they will be presented in an assembly in the regular third period convocation time. This presentation will also mark the opening of the polls for the student body to vote for their favorites. Voting will take place on the main floor of the Memorial Student Center as ballots will be distributed from 11:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Miss Carritt

Tonight the Homecoming Queen will be crowned at ceremonies to take place in Zimmermann Hall. The presentation of the court and crowning of the queen at 6:25 p. m. will open the 1962 Graceland College Homecoming. The queen will then rule over the two one-act plays to be presented as well as over the football game and talent show on Saturday.

The candidates for this year's Queen were chosen by the women's houses on campus. Each house nominated one of the women residing therein as "representative of the spirit of Graceland and college womanhood."

The candidates made their first public appearance together at the Homecoming Assembly Thursday.

As the women were presented, it was emphasized that this year's selection of Queen was to be based entirely on the popular vote of the student body. The close of the assembly marked the opening of the polls in the Memorial Student Center. Throughout the day students were allowed to participate in the selection of the Graceland College woman to represent them as Homecoming Queen.

The women composing the court are Miss Sally Carritt, Mrs. Carol Chesworth, Miss Sue Fisher, Miss Ramona Jensen, Miss Valora Long, Miss Kapua Roberts, Miss Cynthia Sanford, and Miss Brenda Shaw.

KIMBALL BEAUTIES RISE EARLY

At the unearthly hour of 5:30 a. m. Saturday morning, Feb. 9, as most of the campus slept, Kimball Manor was alive with girls staggering to get ready for a very unique "Come As You Are" breakfast party. At 6 each member of the house had brought a friend from another house, hauled out of bed and half-pulled, half-dragged to the Walker Activity Room, dressed "as they were" in curlers, pajamas and even mud packs.

Once in the party room, the sixty sleepy girls soon woke up to the smell of home-fried doughnuts and grape juice. The hungry girls quickly devoured 240 doughnuts and four and one half gallons of juice. At the end of a short program, all guests participated in a beauty contest. Titles and prizes went to Pat Rock, "Miss Pin Up"; Rita Norvell, "Miss Sexy Pajamas"; and Sue Mooney, "Miss Bright-eyed and Bushy-tailed."

Soon after this, when not a trace of doughnuts or juice could be found, everyone rushed back to bed to sleep 'til noon.

RELIGION CLUB ORGANIZED

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Negaard, of the religion department, and the leadership of its student officers, the newly formed Religion Club has explored diverse Christian faiths in an attempt to better understand and appreciate Christianity.

Representatives of the Jehovah Witnesses, the Mennonites, and the Church of Christ (Cambellite) have shared with the club their particular Christian views. Other representatives scheduled to speak with the club are from the Church of Christ (Temple Lot), the Church of Christ (Leckite), the Church of Christ (Cutlerite), the Church of Christ (Temple Lot), sage (Whitmerite), and the Church of Christ with the Elijah Mes-Day Saints. All of these groups should be of Latter interest since they are all factions of Mormonism. A discussion with a Roman Catholic and a possible field trip to a Jewish Synagogue are also anticipated.

The next meting will be a discussion on Feb. 4 which will be held in the Assembly Chapel at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Grate of the Leon Methodist Church will be the guest. Don Chesworth, president; Don Gray, vice-president; and Lila Green, secretary extend their personal invitations to all interested persons to attend the forthcoming meetings.

Solah's Perfect Season Gives Her WRA Title

The WRA regularly scheduled basketball season has drawn to a close. I for one am sorry to see it finish but there's always next year to look forward to. As I predicted at the first of the season, we did turn out some semi-pros or at least we tried.

Checking the standings we find Solah atop the A League with a record of 5 wins and 0 defeats. Pretty much a "dark horse team," these girls through practice, diligent team efforts, and expert coaching came up with the winning combination.

The standings for A league are as follows:

TEAM	WON	LOST
Solah	5	0
Traver	4	1
Electa	2	3
Belavera	2	3
Hilltoppers	1	4
Shalom	1	4

The B league also saw one team finish the season undefeated. Kimball Manor managed to compile a 5 win no loss record. There were no serious threats to the attainment of this goal as one game saw a score of 44-12.

Standings in B league are as follows:

TEAM	WIN	LOST
Kimball	5	0
Sariah	4	1
Solah	2	3
Audentia	2	3
Shalom	2	3
Belavera	1	4

With the close of regular season play come post-season games pitting the all-stars from each class against each other. Representing the Freshman Class are: Judi Dawson, Capt.; Patty Argotsinger, Marcia Hunter, Judy Mitchell, Joan Copithorn, Micki Morey, Dee Hoffman, and Sue West.

Comprising the Sophomore team under the coaching of Ken Johnston are: Sally Carritt, Capt.; Nancy Ridings, Sandy Gleazer, Jora Casci, Jann McCarty, Marilyn Vandel, Barb Brooks, and Phyllis Sandidge.

Playing on the Jr.-Sr. team will be Co-captains Rita Norvell and Sue Fisher, Carolyn Carter, Anita Gerber, Barb Farnsworth, Carol Chesworth, Shirley Bigham, and Jan Sprague.

One more item of interest before I close the basketball scene. The high scoring averages for the season were relatively close in range. Leading the B league scoring race was Marcia Hunter with an average of 10 points per game. Following her closely was Margie Booth with an average of 9 4/5 points.

"A" league scoring took on much the same frame with only one point between each of the first three. Nancy Ridings headed the scoring with a 13 point average. Trailing her by one point was Phyllis Sandidge with a 12 point average and still one point further down the line was Micki Morey with 11 points per game. Judi Dawson closes out the top scoring list with with an average of 9 points a game.

With the completion of basketball, the WRA scene switches to more individual type sports. Ping pong tournaments are now underway with first round games having been played and the winners moving on to meet their next challengers. Badminton matches begin shortly and bowling is in full swing. As the seasons go, so goes WRA.

Solah Defeats Traver in WRA: 'San' Girls to Play 'G' All Stars

Saturday night March 2 the girls from the "San" in Independence will be here to challenge the Graceland team. The "All-Stars" who have been chosen to represent Graceland are: Judi Dawson, Micki Morey, Nancy Ridings, Sue Fisher, Rosie Hodges, Jann McCarty, Rita Norvell, Dee Hoffman, Phyllis Sandidge, and Sally Carritt. The team is all set to give the San team a real battle.

Last year the game was very close all the way but the San team went away as the victors with the final score reading 44-42. This year we're looking for the score to end up with the Graceland team on top. With support from the student body this team can go a long way. Game time is 7:30 and we're looking for a big crowd.

The Graceland All-Stars are ready . . .

GRACELAND COLLEGE

LAMONI, IOWA

Welcome to Kimball Manor! Though Kimball may not mean much to you now, you may as well become acquainted with the name as it's one you will be proud of as long as you attend Graceland. Kimball Manor is the housing unit located during the 63-64 school year on third floor of Walker residence hall. As a house, we participate in social, religious, and recreational activities together.

Let me tell you about a few things we did as a house last year. Early in the fall our freshmen entertained returning students with a talent show. This was a "girls only" party as was a "Come As You Are" breakfast held in the spring. At the latter, we fried dozens of doughnuts and had a special beauty contest for the girls whom we so happily dragged out of bed at 5:30 on Saturday morning. Most of our functions were with dates, the first being an Oriental party at which we all dressed Japanese style, ate with Chinese chopsticks and "worshiped" a Buddha. As we were the first house to get our own sweatshirts, we had a line party in December to a basketball game at which we proudly displayed our white crest on maroon shirts. We held a contest what month, also, with a big fruit basket going to the room with the best Christmas decorations. Probably the most sensational activity we had was a mock-banquet in March. It turned out to be sort of a hillbilly affair and we wore old, old dresses, ate hamburgers, had some terrifically terrible entertainment, and the gaudiest decorations! To make things really mock on the traditional banquet style, we even had a walk-out (where most of the campus came to watch us walk out and meet our dates) and a toast--after which, in Graceland tradition, you usually kiss your date--but we surprised the fellows by kissing the one on the other side of us instead of our own date! Our last social activity was the spring banquet and it was beautiful--well worth all the time and energy which goes into making a banquet a real success.

So much for our social activities. I mentioned that the house also participates in religious activities. As with other areas of religious life on campus, your participation here is totally voluntary. We would encourage you, however, to attend devotions, usually held once a week, which provide a fine opportunity for a few minutes "away from the books" and which are enjoyed by member and non-members of the sponsoring church. We are associated in a pastoral group with a men's house. These pastoral groups provide smaller units for fellowship and preaching services, which are held periodically instead of all-campus services.

Woe to Frosh

Initiations Surprise Newcomers; Fun, Acquaintance Is Purpose

At 4:30 a. m. on Saturday, September 14, an army bugle blared through Herald Hall. The Tiona freshmen were rolled from their bunks by the men of upper classes. Kimball Manor women were roused at 6:15 on Saturday morning.

Various houses on campus have been, or are, planning initiations for their freshmen. The main purpose of these is for the house members to get to know each other better by having some fun and interaction.

Upperclassmen have planned many original tests for their houses. At 2 o'clock on Saturday the guys of Faunce House and gals of Kimball Manor met at each end of a tug of war rope which ended with a splash in Big G Lake. Faunce House men were winners of the pulling contest. However the losers reciprocated by tossing the victors' pile of clothing into the lake. From their initiatory experience Kimball Manor women are very adept at playing dead dog, bottoms up and being thrown into Big G Lake.

Faunce house initiates rendered services to the campus. The men shoveled dirt by Gunsolley into a truck, picked up papers and painted football bleachers. On Sunday morning Faunce House met in the assembly chapel for a more serious formal initiation into their living group.

The freshmen ladies of Shalom in north Patroness and those in Audentia East and West Patroness planned a party of skits and talent to entertain their returning upperclassmen in the first week.

The Herald House treasure hunt consisted of running from Herald, to the sales barn, to the West Pines Motel, to North Park, to Founders bridge, to the bank, the flag pole, church, barber shop, Walker Hall, football field and ended with breakfast on the golf course. Upperclassmen went from place to place also, in a car.

GRACELAND MARCHING BAND PLAYS MUSIC AT FOOTBALL HALFTIME SHOWS

At 4:00 p. m. each Monday, Wednesday and Friday the strains of Graceland's fight songs fill the air as the 1963 Yellowjacket Marching Band prepares for its first performance.

The band is under the direction of Mr. Richard Clothier, with Jim Boyd as drum major and Nancy Calhoun, Marilyn McNeill and Linda Fawcett as majorettes. This will be Mr. Clothier's fourth season, and the third for Drum Major Boyd.

The Yellowjacket Band adopts a modified collegiate style of marching rather than the military style, as it performs on the gridiron. Their performance is enhanced greatly by flashy uniforms of original design, now being used in their third year.

Halftme at the home games will feature the Yellowjacket Band in the following shows: Sept. 28, "Memories of the Town," Oct. 12, "Hi-Fi Fun," Oct. 19 (Homecoming) "From Coast to Coast to Graceland's Hill."

The following are members of the 1963 Yellowjacket Band: Cheryl Bardo, Carol Bell, Jon Briggs, Ken Campbell, Robert Campbell, Stev- en Campbell, Elwood Courtney, Susan Cox, Charles Curry, Blanch- marie Davis, Hal Davis, Judy Fryer, Roy Hannock, Barry Hart- man, Ralph Jensen, Pamela Jud- son, Verna Knapp, Joe Kubec, Dave Lambkin and Marian Math- ews.

Also members are Gerald Mayn- ard, Terry McConnell, Gail Mc- Lean, Bonnie Mller, David Muel- ler, Allison Nichol, Nancy Noe, Louis Patterson, Richard Penning- ton, Shelly Sauch, Shirleen Shef- field, Bob Skelton, Janet Spiller, Cheryl Stover, Gordon Suddaby, Jane Williams and Bill Woodward.

To the Editor:

It has often been said that anything worth doing is worth doing well. We find that this is applicable in many areas, particularly at this time of the year with reference to the Homecoming queen. The preparation that goes into this contest goes on into the wee hours of several nights — many people are involved in the making of posters, banners and pictures. But in the last several years the attention given to the biggest contest of its kind during the school year has become less and less. If Graceland College is to have a Homecoming queen, the least we can do is to show her that we are proud of the choice we have made through more appropriate recognition.

Kimball Manor Marks Solemn Occasion

A dedication ceremony commemorated the opening of the new restrooms in Kimball Manor, October 8, 1963.

Lila Kay Green opened the ceremony with a welcome to all those girls who had so long awaited the happy event. After the welcome, Marsha Hunter read a poem. Sharon Pray was the speaker for the evening, and following her address Karen Ferris sang a dedication song.

Several girls were called upon to give testimonies as to what the new restrooms meant to them. Lila Kay Green then cut the ribbon, and Diane Elam ended the ceremony with a dedication of the showers. The girls of Kimball Manor are extremely thankful that the restrooms are finally completed.

MIDLAND (Mich.) DAILY NEWS, Wednesday, Aug. 7, 1963

PREPARING TO leave for Tahiti are Steven and Angela Graffeo, seated in front of (left to right) Mr. and Mrs. Ronald J. Houdyshell and the children's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Graffeo. The daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burt, 111 East Haley, Mrs. Houdyshell and Mrs. Graffeo and their families will be leaving for posts in Colombia and Tahiti at the end of this month. They are pictured at the Burt residence.

Sisters Plan Work In Foreign Fields

By Alice Harper
Daily News Staff Member

Flying to Cali, Colombia, and Papeete, Tahiti, the latter part of this month will be two Midland sisters, who, with their husbands, have combined their interest in working with children, young adults, and living in foreign countries into an exciting new life for the next few years.

Tahiti, a part of French Polynesia, will be the destination of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Graffeo and their two children. Mrs. Graffeo is the former Judy Yarrington, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burt, 111 East Haley. A second daughter, Carol, will travel with her husband, Ronald J. Houdyshell, to Cali, Colombia.

Graffeo, a missionary of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, was previously stationed in Wichita, Kansas. He will continue his work with youth and young adults who comprise 50 percent of the native Tahitian population in the islands.

He pointed out that Tahiti, a French possession, requires a knowledge of that language to enter the colony. While able to speak French, he and his wife and their two children, Steven, 5, and Angela, 18 months, will begin learning the native Tahitian tongue after they arrive. This will be necessary since the natives do not speak French or English.

The Graffeos will serve in Tahiti for a six year period interrupted by a one year interval after the first three years when they will return to the United States.

The native population will be greatly affected, Graffeo stated, by the proposed French test bomb site, centered in Tahiti. This installation will influence all phases of native life, in addition to the area of the church. French technicians are there now, and by 1966 it is planned that the center will be completely staffed.

The couple attended Graceland College, Lamoni, Iowa. He graduated in 1958 and has a Master's degree from Indiana University, Bloomington, in recreation administration. His wife was a 1955 graduate of Midland High School and attended Graceland for two years.

The Houdysehlls, who have been married about two months, have been attending school this summer at Illinois Eastern University, Charleston, Ill., and also attended Graceland College.

They will both teach at Colejio Bolivar, (a private school in Cali, Colombia, for the next two years. The English speaking school was built by North American businessmen in the area who desired a school for their children similar to those in the United States. The school is attended by both American children and those of several other nationalties.

Houdyshell stressed the fact that he and his wife were not working for the government or a church organization. They first became interested in the school after his sister had taught there three years ago.

Mrs. Houdyshell, a 1961 Midland High School graduate, has attended Graceland for two years and will teach kindergarten and nursery school in Cali this fall. Her husband, originally from Lancaster, Ohio, received his degree from Graceland last year and has taught in Garden Grove, Iowa. He plans to teach science and physical education.

They will board a plane for Cali at Columbus, Ohio, August 20, three days before the Graffeos leave for Tahiti from Kansas City, Mo.

Leaving Midland Tuesday, the two couples have been visiting at the Burt residence.

Off-Campus Dorms House Kimball Manor

Fifty-three women living in Derry Hall, East Hall, Country Club and many private homes make up Kimball Manor.

The women arrived at the name of their house after searching through RLDS church history. The house is named after Heber C. Kimball's wife. They added Manor because they liked it. The Kimball House colors are white on maroon.

House officers are: Gwen Robinson, house president; Lila Kay Green, vice-president-secretary; Margaret Parker, vice-president-treasurer; Kathy Hough and Jennifer Gates, chaplains; Diana Willetts and Darla Campbell, senators; Stephanie Beck, social chairman; and Glenda McKee, WRA representative.

Their crescents are Marian Mathews and Kae Ketzler.

Earlier this year, Kimball Manor had a hamburger fry with Edwards, their brother house. Edwards House provided the entertainment.

They have also had a "Come As You Are Breakfast" at which they invited other girls, and a "Do It Yourself" function with dates.

The women's banquet is going to be December 12 and their theme is "A Rose and a Snowflake."

As a service project some of the women helped clean the infirmary.

In WRA, Kimball Manor holds first place in volleyball.

Other points of interest from the house is the fact that a number of the men's costumes for the play, "The Taming of the Shrew" were made by Kathy Hough, one of the chaplains. Gwen Robinson, their house president, is presently student teaching the third grade in Lamoni.

Kimball Manor is unique in that they have a registered nurse, Betty Else, as a member of their house.

Kimball Manor house council consists of: (Row 1) Cindy DeSalvo, Gwen Robinson, Kathy Hough, Stephanie Beck, and (Row 2) Lila Green, Kae Ketzler, Glenda McKee, Marion Matthews, and Margaret Parker.

Glenda McKee is a sophomore from Rock Island, Illinois. She was nominated by Kimball Manor. Glenda is a cheerleader, WRA representative for her house, a member of the WRA cabinet, and a participant in intramurals. She is also copy editor for the Acacia. Glenda is an elementary education major and plans to graduate from Graceland.

OUR QUEEN

Houses Select Eight Candidates

The Homecoming Queen Candidates for the 1964 Homecoming were chosen this last week in joint meetings of brother-sister houses. The competition was stiff and it took some time to choose the candidates. However, it was done and eight young women are now queen hopefuls.

The candidates are Mrs. Lorrie Strait (Electa House), Janet Henderson (Audentia House), Pebble Edwards (Solah House), and Judy Baker (Shalom House).

Also nominated are Barbara Brooks (Sariah House), Sally Ashby (Belavera House), Linda Tedder (Traver House), and Glenda McKee (Kimball Manor).

The queen will be elected through an all campus vote which will be this Thursday. Polls will be open until 5 p.m.

College Bowl

Next Wednesday, the 17th of March, will witness the climax of the College Bowl season. At 4:00 p.m. in the MSC, the match for 3rd place, between Kimball-Manor-Edwards and Shalom-Closson, will ensue. Audentia-Aaron will meet Agape-Traver at 4:45 p.m. for the finals. The winning teams of this match will receive two trophies—one for the sister house, and one for the brother house. At this time an All-Star Team will be chosen to which will be awarded gold medals and the opportunity to compete together in a planned Invitational Tournament to be held here the 24th of April.

Last week Kimball Manor-Edwards overran Sariah-Stewart Manor in a 319 to 88 victory. Dave Cook, a senior history major answered more of the toss-up questions than anyone on either team. Others on his Kimball-Edwards team were Marion Matthews, an English major, Bob Moore, a freshman majoring in mathematics, and junior Jenny Gates, an English major.

64-'65 Gadets, Cheerleader Squads Picked At Tryouts Last Saturday

Cheerleaders and Gadets for this year were chosen on Saturday, October 12.

Each person desiring to become a member of the Graceland cheerleading squad was required to perform cheers before a panel of judges consisting of the coaches, Mrs. Welch, and the returning cheerleaders.

Representatives of the junior class on the squad are captain Cindy DeSalvo and Carol Sue Walburn, returning. Representing the sophomore class are Glenda McKee, returning, Kay Toney, Laurie Dolliver and Pete Jones, all newly chosen. Freshman Dave Swayne rounds off the squad for this year.

One of their main objectives for this year is to improve school spirit. They also plan to learn and use some new collegiate cheers.

Forty-three girls assembled for Gadet tryouts and of that number 16 regulars and two alternates were chosen.

Their tryouts were based on marching ability, the capability to learn new routines quickly, personality, and smile.

The life of a Gadet is not an easy one, for they practice at least once every day. The results of their practice can be viewed at their first performance scheduled for Homecoming. At this time they will perform a routine to "King Cotton."

A Kimball Girl in New Folk Singers

New Folk Singers To Revive Ragtime Era

by Alice Kramer

The New Folk Singers will present in concert for the campus community, Monday evening at 8:30, numbers dating from the era of "Alexander's Ragtime Band" through the beginnings of rock and roll, and up to the present scene at Graceland.

Numbers being prepared by the nine-member group are "Robert E. Lee," from the early 1920's, Ray Charles' "Smack Dab in the Middle," and "Summertime" from the musical "Porgy and Bess." "Welcome to Lamoni," from an original musical composed for Graceland, will lead up to three numbers written by three of the 1967 New Folk Singers: "Heather," by Ray Adams, "Empty Dream," by Karen Baker, and, "My Boy," by Sherri Huffman.

Record in the offing

Included in the group's off-campus performances this year were an appearance at the homecoming of Waldorf College in Forrest City, Iowa, and another appearance in a show with Frank Fontaine, well-known from his association with Jackie Gleason.

Tuesday night, the singers will record an LP album in Kansas City for Century Recording Studios. It will be released in late January or early February.

Steele as prime mover

The group was organized here at Graceland in 1965 under the direction of Dennis Steele, who is still with the group as arranger. Ray Adams, leader of the group, commented, "Directly responsible for anything we have achieved as a group is Dennis Steele because of his many hours and much genius put forth for the group's success."

He also remarked that the group has been working hard to get ready for Monday's concert, and that a Graceland audience is the hardest kind for the group to perform for because of the familiarity of the students with the singers.

Members from eight states

The singers may be touring and recruiting for the College next summer. The present members are: Ray Adams, from Detroit, Mich.; Eric DeFrain, from Warrensburg, Mo.; Craig Warner, from Ogden, Utah; Dennis Coleman, from Omaha, Neb.; Sidna Beck, from Riverside, Calif.; Karen Baker, from Los Angeles, Calif.; Sherri Huffman, from Worthington, Ohio; Lorna Sutherland, from Pensacola, Fla.; and Randy Fields, from Gary, Ind.

Crescents Carol Girls' Dorms

BY Carol Parks

Fourteen Crescents will visit girls dorms one evening next week to sing 10 to 15 traditional Christmas Carols.

Every year these girls, wearing white blouses and red skirts, march through the halls singing Christmas carols and carrying white lighted candles. Usually the dorm girls gather with them in the main lounges of Walker, Tess Morgan, and Patroness for some group singing.

The carolers will then meet at Dr. Velma Ruch's house for refreshments. Mrs. Les (Darlene) Wight, present sponsor, and Mrs. William (Charlotte) Gould, past sponsor, will go with the girls.

This year's crescents are: Joy Armstrong (Chemin), Sidna Beck (Dimora), Ruth Ann Brown (Mahana), Teresa Carpenter (Belevera), Barb Coltharp (Kimball Manor), Mary Linda Jacobson (Solah).

Sue Kolquist (Audentia), Dixie Rolan (Traver), Connie Sickles (Traver), Susie Tomenga (Sariah) and Laurie Romig.

North Door Singers Cut Album

THE NORTH DOOR SINGERS, composed of Graceland students, faculty and alumni, have recorded a long playing stereo album entitled "The Way We See It" featuring such faforites as "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Waitin' for the Robert E. Lee," "It's Not for Me to Say," "Alabamy Bound," "Goody Goody," four originals, plus four others. The LP is available and can be purchased through the Graceland College Bookstore.

The group will be singing for the World Conference on Monday, Apr. 1, and on Wednesday, Apr. 3.

They will also be appearing at the Mount Ayr Community High School on the 26th of April.

THE NORTH DOOR SINGERS are available for concert and club engagements as well as conventions, fairs, rodeos, etc. They will be touring the Midwest this spring and summer.

Colorful history

Their history goes back to the Fall of 1965. At that time several campus groups — trios, duets, etc. — got together and organized a folk group patterned after the New Christy Minstrels. Their association eventually included the arrangements of Mr. Dennis Steele, Assistant Professor of Mathematics and Philosophy at Graceland College, and from that time on they began to evolve a style of their own. This first year found the Newfolk Singers, the original name of the group, singing for local campus events and occasionally for off-campus activities, as well as successful appearances around Iowa and Northern Missouri the following year.

Fall, 1967, arrived. Only two of the '66-'67 group were still associated with the Graceland campus — the arranger and faculty member, Mr. Dennis Steele, and Mr. Ray Adams, a junior in Economics. After recruiting new students, the Newfolk Singers were back in action. Although the Christmas concert was the more elaborate of the two appearances, it was the Homecoming performance which initiated a new dimension in the group's experience.

Future plans

It was here that a Graceland alumnus heard them and took an active interest in helping achieve some goals which on their own they would not have even conceived, much less pursued.

Friends of Graceland as well as many others will recognize this alumnus as the past voice of the Kansas City Athletics, the Milwaukee Braves, and the present voice of the Minnesota Twins and the New York Jets — Mr. Merle Harmon. Merle talked with the group and eventually decided to assist them with the production of a long-playing stereo recording.

In a pace-setting November, arrangements were learned and staging was rehearsed for the Christmas concert as well as preparations for what turned out to be a ten-hour recording session.

After the holidays, a trip to the Harmon home in Minneapolis produced new outfits, photographs, auditions and legal arrangements for the group, part of which included the adoption of the name — THE NORTH DOOR SINGERS.

Why North Door

A word is in order about the name. One of the features of the Graceland campus is the old administration building which has been central to the campus since 1895 when the college was founded. The North Door of this building has a tradition which involves numerous romances, some of which have resulted in families, and some of which are only memory. The arch around the door is filled with initials. A few belong to couples which are now associated with the College as members of the faculty. The North Door is a symbol of love and good times.

"The Way We See It," a new album made by The North Door Singers will be available on campus early next week.

House Presidents Chosen For Next Year's Posts

by Candy Morgan

The Council of House Presidents announced Sunday night the new house presidents for '68-'69. The procedure for election this year was changed and it is believed to be more effective. The Council met with applicants for interviews beginning Apr. 8. Each applicant was interviewed by a committee of five; he was asked various questions concerning the housing program. Besides the personal interview each applicant had to fill out a questionaire and have three reference sheets filled out.

Beginning on Apr. 22, the CHP met to begin selection. With each application, the house preference vote, application, references, and interviews were taken into consideration. Saturday, Apr. 28, at 11:00 a.m. the final meeting was adjourned with all the house presidents having been chosen.

'68-'69 Presidents

The presidents for the next year will be as follows: Aaron, Mike Munter; Agape, Blake Puckett; Ananta, Ruth McIntosh; Audentia, Connie Mogg; Belavera, Pat Hunter; Chemin, Karen Ritchie; Cheville, Mike Bessonette; Closson, Larry Morris.

Dimora, Sue Beckett; Edwards, Gene Hobart; Faunce, Dennis Clinefelter; Kimball, Eleanor Rasmussen; Mahana, LaDora Cripps; Paloma, Marilyn Rippey; Sariah, Diane Doty; Shalom, Phyllis Emerson.

Solah, Rosemary Smith; Stewart, Manor, Terry Shelton; Tiona, Jim Simpson; Traver, Judy Ralston.

CHP President Derald Hafner expressed his feelings concerning this year's selection: "This job was long and tedious, but we feel it was a job well done."

Early Birds Become Crescents; May Rose Ceremony Slated

by Twila Hidy

At 4:30 a.m. Tuesday morning, fifteen freshmen girls were awakened for a wide variety of bizarre reasons (Teresa Carpenter's mother just had her baby?) only to be led around campus — a la initiation style — before a breakfast at the home of Mrs. Darlene Wight.

After the girls traversed a number of miles all over the campus and Lamoni blindfolded, doing varied activities such as hiking, riding bicycles, running the track, going to a surprise birthday breakfast, or crawling through tunnels, they rode to the sponsor's home and waited for the rest to come. When everyone had arrived, Mrs. Wight of the English Department, who sponsors the Crescents, served hot rolls, orange juice, and hot chocolate.

Fifteen Freshmen Chosen

The girls were permitted to remove their blindfolds and meet the rest of the Crescents chosen for next year. They are: Becky Minton, President, Tuletha Murphy, Secretary, Gwen Stowell, Christie Waite, Janell Gurwell, Peggy Anderson, Twila Hidy, Sue Starrett, Kathy West, Janet Engle, Jackie Goad, Connie Love, Nelda DeBardelaben, Jane Russell, and Roxie Vale.

Ceremony may be closed

Plans were announced for the rose ceremony, an introduction into the Crescent organization, which has in the past been open to the public. This year tentative plans are being made to make it a closed ceremony with special invitations offered to parents, roommates, and close friends. It will be held sometime in May.

Fifteen Crescents are chosen by all women on campus out of girls in the freshman class each year. During their sophomore year, these girls act as "big sisters" to freshman girls and help to orient them to Graceland life.

Song of the Kimball Kuties

Life is so Amusing
It's a dog-gone shame it has to be so Confusing
There's something about a Kimball gal
That all you guys should know
'Cause when you're out and the lights are low
She goes da dat da da da da boom!
Chorus
Old Man Fuller caught a college boy
Kissing one of our girls
We heard him say you better name the day or it's da dat da da da da boom!
Chorus
There's a girl from Kimball that's a great big hit
Working her way through school
She just struts along to a little song
That goes da dat da da da da boom!
Chorus
Now all you girls who haven't been kissed
Better get 'neath the moon
'Cause when you find out what it's all about
You'll go da dat da da da da boom!

The bride's gown, fashioned by the bride's mother, was Empire, A-line of peau de soie satin with a high, wide neckline. The bodice, elbow-length bell-shaped sleeves, hemline of dress and chapel-length train were trimmed with Venise lace appliques accented by oblong seed pearls. Her elbow-length veil of illusion net was held by a satin pillbox also trimmed with Venise lace appliques and pearls. The bride carried a French Colonial bouquet of stephanotis highlighted by white velevet forget-me-nots edged with variegated ivy leaves.

Miss Joyce McDole, sister of the bride, served as the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Stewart McDole, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Patricia White, sister of the bridegroom. Her attendants wore identical A-line gowns of powder blue crystal peau de soie.

Kimball's House Song

Standing high upon a hilltop
Is our home so dear.
We shall not forget the friendships
That we've all made here.

In our KIMBALL MANOR home
We've found hearts kind and true,
And we've found that KIMBALL people
Help and love us, too.
We'll remember our KIMBALL MANOR,
We'll remember when we're afar,
And the ties that have always bond us
Will reach us where'er we are.
We'll remember the fun and laughter,
And also the sighs and tears,
For the friends that we've made in KIMBALL.
Will last us throughout the years.

Those who were not returning to Kimball were surprised by a going away party during finals week. They were all given copies of the house song, and many story-tellers revealed mischievous things they had done throughout the year

Yes, another Kimball year has passed.
Specific memories will fade,
But, through the years, one thing will last:
The Kimball friendships we have made.

Were you thinking of migrating home this weekend?? Well. . . don't! This Friday and Saturday nights at 8:00 are the dates set for the annual Pops Concert and you won't want to miss it!

"Moon Harvest", as it will be called this year will be held in the main room of the MSC, and will guarantee an enchanging evening of candlelight and music in a semi-formal nightclub atmosphere. While you sit at a small candlelit table, you will be serenaded by the orchestra and concert choir.

The music is a combination of classical and modern including some selections from "Fiddler on the Roof". Refreshments will also be available, such as small sandwiches, tarts, hors d'oeuvres and soft drinks at a small extra cost. All seats are reserved and tickets can be purchased in the MSC at 25¢ per person.

A Number of KIMBALL Girls went To The Pops concert!

KIMBALL had a birthday party for Zonia Mego, and made her a present of enough money to call home!! in Peru

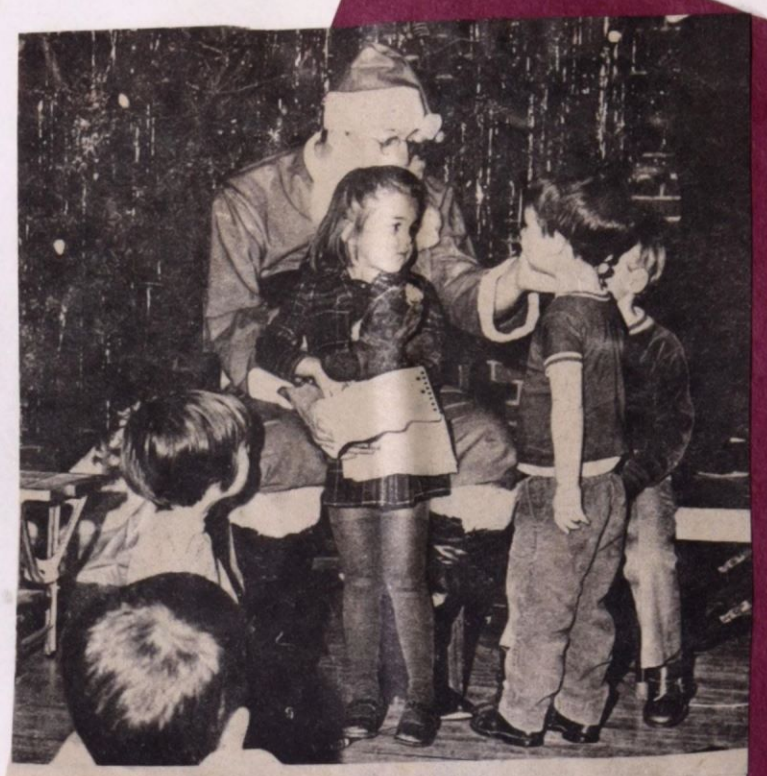
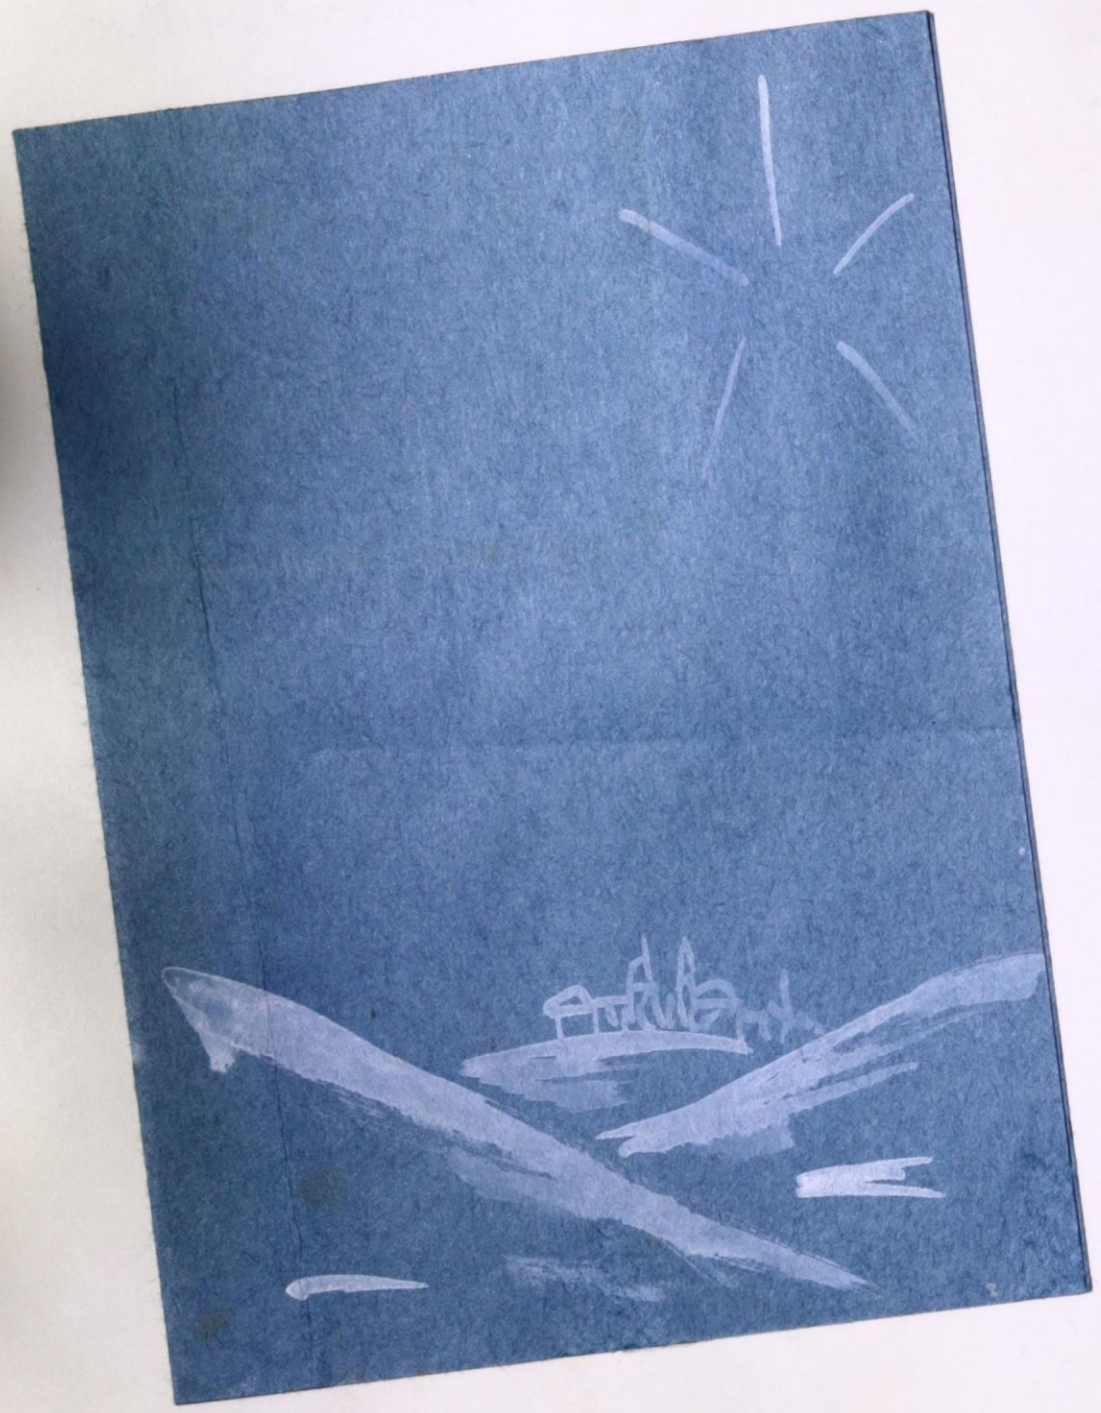
XMAS CARDS



"Santa" takes requests from some of the younger member of the community during Wednesday's tree lighting which off cially began "Christmas on Campus".



Merry Christmas to all!

We are all born for love—
it is the principal of existence and only end.

LOVE
is strong as death
. . many waters cannot quench it,
neither can floods drown it.

Only in LOVE can life's true
path be trod.
Love is self-giving;
therefore love is
GOD.

He who LOVES brings
God and the world together.
